

YOUR ULTIMATE SKI WEEKEND IT ALL STARTS FROM THE FIRST CALL.

We start by suggesting what works well, what doesn't, where the best snow will be, where the best restaurants or guides are, alternatively you can talk to us about exactly what you want.

2 nights, 3 nights, 4 nights or more. 4 guests, 8 clients, 25 colleagues, 48 staff, 96 industry professionals, or any number.

Something good value and to fit a small budget, or a lavish break with private jets, heli-transfers, private chalets and spas.

Indeed anything inbetween.

A suggested short break itinerary is outlined opposite to flavour the palate – based in Chamonix, including a visit to the Italian side - Courmayeur:

Setting off

Flights from Heathrow with Swiss or BA
Arrival in Geneva to be met by your personal chauffeur
Canapés and Champagne / drinks served en route to your destination
From the airport you're typically just 1hrs travel to the resort
Privately arranged ski and boot fitting service for your group
Check-in to your accommodation – be it a chalet or hotel
Briefing from Ski Weekend on your itinerary, local conditions and meeting guides including the non-skiing activities
Dinner at the hotel followed by drinks at a private location

1st day skiing

Breakfast followed by meeting of guides
Various mountain activities planned including vin chaud/ hot chocolate
Lunch at a mountain restaurant
Afternoon ski followed by panoramic flight
Après-ski followed by massages and spa relaxation
Meet for pre dinner drinks
Dinner options designed by 3* Michelin chef Denis Flota in one of our unique private dining locations

2nd day skiing

Skiing in the morning
Alpine activities planned for the afternoon such as ski-joering or huski-sled riding
Return to the hotel before departure for dinner
Skidoo across to the Maison Vieille in Courmayeur, Italy with classic Italian food and wine OR
We can plan snow shoeing to the Vieille Luge Alpina Chalet, Les Houches

3rd day skiing

Heli-ski day

Just over the border in Switzerland (25mins) a helicopter will take you up onto the glaciers for an unforgettable heli-ski day.
Late lunch – homemade pasta in the Trient Valley
Ski back and return to hotel
Onward transfer to Geneva to make your flight home

Treat this as an idea to whet the appetite. Anything is possible, that's the Ski Weekend philosophy.
